

Post harvest disorders of peas

Field Vegetables

Peas

Pea moth caterpillar

Silver Y moth caterpillars

Silver Y moth pupae

Slugs

Hoverfly larva and pupae

Pea seed-borne mosaic virus

Botrytis staining

Sclerotia of Sclerotinia

Mayweed heads

Linseed capsules

Potato berries

Oilseed rape debris

Thistle heads

White bryony berries

Poppy flowers and seed heads

Black nightshade berries

Pods

Hail damage

Frost damage

Pea thrips damage

Ascochyta pod spot

Powdery mildew

Botrytis pod rot

Mycosphaerella pod spot

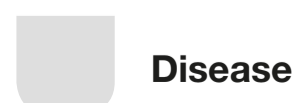

Downy mildew

Key:

Invertebrate contaminants

Disease

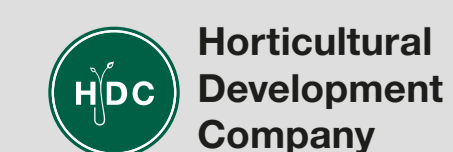

Plant contaminants

Physiological damage

£25.00 where sold

HDC is a division of the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board (AHDB).

Horticultural Development Company

Stoneleigh Park
Kenilworth
Warwickshire
CV8 2TL

T: 024 7669 2051
E: hdc@hdc.ahdb.org.uk
Twitter: @HDCtweets
www.hdc.org.uk